TO MAKE A REPORT TO THE COLLEGE

- Title IX Personnel
 - Michael Dunn, Title IX Coordinator: 240-895-4105, mkdunn@smcm.edu, Lucille Clifton House
 - Kyle Bishop, Deputy Title IX Coordinator: 240-895-3181, kkbishop@smcm.edu, Calvert 220
 - Shannon Jarboe, Deputy Title IX Coordinator: 240-895-4309, skjarboe@smcm.edu, Glendening 170
- Responsible Employees
 - Faculty, staff, coaches, Public Safety, RAs, RHCs, etc.
 - When you make a report to a responsible employee, the person you speak with is obligated to share the details of the situation with Title IX Coordinator Michael Dunn.

WHEN YOU MAKE A REPORT

- If you decide to make a report, you are in control.
- You have the right to choose whom you will talk to, what resources you will use, what you will say, and when you will say it.
- If you choose to share your experience, your disclosure will be taken seriously and you will be treated with dignity.
- The College encourages you to report to law enforcement, and the College will help you work with them.
- Reporting to the Title IX Coordinator does not automatically initiate an investigation.
- Reporting Title IX issues will enable the College to take measures to stop any misconduct, prevent it from happening again, and provide support, resources, and protection.

TO PREVENT SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

- Don't harass, exploit, threaten, or assault people.
- Intervene if something doesn't seem right.
- Understand and use your power to make a positive difference in our community.
- Take care of yourself and your friends.
- Understand how alcohol affects the body, mind, and ability to consent.
- Discuss and respect boundaries and preferences with sexual partners.
- Make sure you and any sexual partner willingly, freely and knowledgeably consent before any sexual activity.
