

CAPITAL DESIGN ADVISORY
ANNE ARUNDEL HALL REPLACEMENT
MARYLAND HERITAGE INTERPRETIVE CENTER
PROGRAM, SITE CONCEPT & STEWARDSHIP SURVEY
OPEN HOUSE: AUGUST 13, 2009
PUBLIC MEETING: AUGUST 19, 2009

Question	Yes	Partially	No	Comment themes
Did the information presented at the Capital Design Advisory Open House and/or the Capital Design Advisory Public Meeting help you understand the nature, benefits, and future direction of the affiliation between the College and the Commission?	12	4	0	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Good job</li> <li>• Predetermined (by College) site location</li> <li>• No mention of drawbacks to the College's plans</li> <li>• Renovate over reconstruct</li> </ul>
Did the information presented at the Capital Design Advisory Open House and/or the Capital Design Advisory Public Meeting help you understand the processes undertaken by the College and the Commission in order to evaluate both institution's needs and develop solutions for them to meet these needs?	12	4	0	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Lack of archaeology sensitivity</li> </ul>
Did the information presented at the Capital Design Advisory Open House and/or the Capital Design Advisory Public Meeting help you understand the processes that the College and the Commission have and will use to protect the site's cultural and historic resources?	11	3	2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Lack of archaeology sensitivity, esp. Mill Field and parking</li> </ul>
Please share with the Capital Design Advisory any concerns, comments or questions you have about the Anne Arundel Hall Reconstruction /Maryland Heritage Interpretive Center project.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Parking - 2</li> <li>• Location (archaeology) - 2</li> <li>• Renovate over reconstruct - 3</li> <li>• Good job - 3</li> <li>• Crossing Rt. 5 – 1</li> <li>• Site building on the high side of the site - 1</li> <li>• Use correct mechanical systems for archive materials- 1</li> <li>• Capture the history of Anne Arundel Hall in the new building – 1</li> <li>• When will project start and complete - 1</li> </ul>			