US Northwest Museum Studies Trip
Monday, May 18 – Saturday, May 30
2015

Wake up just steps away from the Pacific Ocean. Explore Olympic National Park. Follow in the footsteps of Lewis and Clark through the Columbia River basin. Enjoy lunch atop Mt. Hood. See a full-scale Stonehenge replica. Eat dinner in the Seattle Space Needle. All of these experiences and more are planned for a 2-week museum studies trip to the US Northwest in May 2015.

Museums, National Parks, and Other Sites Featured on This Trip

EMP Museum
Maryhill Art Museum
Portland Art Museum
Naval Undersea Museum
Hoyt Arboretum

Olympic National Park
Mt. Hood National Park
Lewis & Clark National Park
Columbia Gorge Discovery Center
Oregon Historical Society

World Kite Museum
Bremerton Bug Museum
Chihuly Museum
Cranberry Museum
Seattle Science Center

Expected student cost = $1,850 to $2,000
Includes airfare, lodging, most meals, and museum/park admission.

If interested in this trip, contact Rod Cofield at: wrcofield@smcm.edu

This opportunity brought to you by St. Mary’s College of Maryland’s Museum Studies