

Senior-Level Paper in POSC Seminar as Senior Experience

Student Name _____ ID Number _____

Course Number and Name _____ Semester _____

This student elects to use a senior-level paper written in the above named seminar to fulfill the Senior Experience requirement for Political Science Majors. (Students completing an SMP are not required to do this.)

- A. The senior-level paper must be one in which the student demonstrates competence in political science by
 - (1) identifying and engaging with the concepts, problems, or controversies in the subfield of the seminar; and
 - (2) making a contribution to those issues.
- B. The student must submit a copy of the (ungraded) senior-level paper to the department chair no later than the final day of examinations scheduled for the semester in which the seminar is completed. The course instructor must indicate on the title page of the paper that it fulfills the criteria given above.
- C. Students using the senior-level paper to fulfill the Senior Experience requirement of the major are not eligible for the departmental awards for achievement and excellence in the discipline.
