

Psychology in West Africa
Summer 2010
7 weeks of experiential learning

Learn about Gambian culture,
Learn about yourself.
The Gambia, West Africa
The smallest country in Africa.
An English speaking country.
Affectionately called
"The Smiling Coast"
for its friendly people with generous spirits.

One of the poorest countries in the world. Sixty five percent of the Gambian people live in poverty.

Ninety five percent are Muslim.
Peaceful and non-violent,
Gambians model tolerance and acceptance.

Spend your next summer living,
learning, and growing in The Gambia.

Past students have described it as a life changing experience.

Assistant Professor of Psychology Debbie O'Donnell travels regularly to The Gambia. She has supervised SMCM students conducting cross-cultural research as part of the summer program since 2004, and will do so again in Summer 2010.

The seven week program consists of cultural events, a week long trip to upcountry villages, and research.

Contact Debbie O'Donnell at daodonnell@smcm.edu or 240-895-4345 to learn more about this exciting experiential learning opportunity.

