

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MINORS THEATER STUDIES and FILM AND MEDIA STUDIES

To complete a minor in theater studies or in film and media studies, students must satisfy the following requirements:

1. General College requirements
2. All requirements in a major field of study other than theater studies or film and media studies
3. At least 20 semester-hours of course work in theater studies or in film and media studies, with a grade of C or above

MINOR IN THEATER STUDIES

Students choosing to minor in theater studies are responsible for designing a cohesive area of study in consultation with a member of the department faculty. The minor in theater studies is 20 semester-hours. Each course is four semester-hours, unless otherwise noted. Students must fulfill the following requirements:

1. TFMS 200: Theater in History
2. TFMS 300: Modern Theater
3. An additional 12 semester-hours chosen from course offerings in the theater studies focus area (four semester-hours must be at the 300- or 400-level) in consultation with a member of the department faculty

MINOR IN FILM AND MEDIA STUDIES

Students choosing to minor in film and media studies are responsible for designing a cohesive area of study in consultation with a member of the department faculty. The minor in film and media studies is 20 semester-hours. Each course is four semester-hours, unless otherwise indicated. Students must fulfill the following requirements:

1. TFMS 220: Introduction to Film and Media Studies
2. TFMS 320: Film History
3. An additional 12 semester-hours chosen from course offerings in the film and media studies focus area (four semester-hours must be at the 300- or 400-level) in consultation with a member of the department faculty