BACKGROUND
Sex discrimination is prohibited by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, a federal law that provides that:

No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.

Sexual harassment is also prohibited under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Maryland Fair Employment Practices Act (adapting language of Title VII), and other applicable law.

As an educational community, the College will respond promptly and equitably to reports of sexual misconduct in order to investigate the situation, eliminate any harassment, prevent its recurrence, and address its effects on any individual or the community.

TITLE IX COORDINATOR
The College has designated Michael Dunn to serve as the College's Title IX Coordinator. The Title IX Coordinator oversees the College's response to sexual harassment and misconduct to ensure a consistent institutional response that is compliant, coordinated, and compassionate. The Title IX Coordinator can be reached by phone (240-895-4105), email (titleix@smcm.edu or mkdunn@smcm.edu), or in person at the Lucille Clifton House.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICY
The College's policy and grievance procedures on sexual harassment and misconduct provide interim remedies and protective measures for an individual who has experienced sexual harassment or sexual misconduct, prompt and equitable procedures for investigating and resolving a report of sexual misconduct, and accountability for an individual who violates the College's prohibitions. Any student or College employee who is found to have committed sexual harassment or misconduct may face suspension, expulsion, or dismissal from employment.

The College's policies apply to all students, employees, and visitors. Every community member is highly encouraged to familiarize themselves with the policy, the available resources, and the options for reporting and resolving a complaint of sexual harassment or misconduct. The policy is online on the College's website and copies of the policy will be made available to you in the Dean of Students Office and in the Title IX Office.

The College encourages any individual who has experienced or witnessed any type of sexual harassment or sexual misconduct to seek immediate medical attention, seek help from law enforcement, and to promptly report the incident to the College's Title IX Coordinator. The College cannot take appropriate action unless the College is aware of the report.

At the College, employees with supervisory and leadership responsibilities on campus are considered responsible employees. This includes all faculty, coaches, administrators, Resident Assistants/Residence Hall Coordinators, and other student employees/volunteers with a significant responsibility for student welfare. With the exception of individuals who have legally protected confidentiality (see below), all responsible employees of the College are required to share with the Title IX Coordinator any report of sexual harassment or misconduct they receive, or of which they become aware.

Retaliation against any person involved in the complaint, investigation and/or resolution of an allegation of sexual misconduct is strictly prohibited and will result in disciplinary action.

PREVENTION AND BYSTANDER INTERVENTION
The College encourages all students and employees to take a proactive stance to prevent sexual harassment and discrimination. The College offers a variety of educational programs on campus to help community members learn to recognize harassment, talk about consent, and learn what they can do to prevent harassment and violence by being an active bystander. Please contact the Title IX Coordinator for information about training, programming, or prevention.

We all have a shared responsibility to ensure that the College is a safe and supportive learning, living, and working environment for all.
