INTRODUCTION

This study lists in detail the various serial publications of The Gambia during the colonial period, and indicates the availability of the various items on microfilm.

In 1971 (1972?) Stanford University Library Photographic Department produced microfilms of the Gambia publications in the David P. Gamble Collection. (6 reels). Items appearing here are indicated by *G. Where an item has since been added to the collection, but is not on the microfilm, it is marked G.

EP Microform Ltd. of East Ardsley, Wakefield, Yorkshire, WF3 2JN, England, has produced two series of microfilms:

- (1) Government Publications Relating to the Gambia, 1822-1965, which covers the Blue Books, the Annual Reports, and the Government Gazette. (71 reels, 1975). and
- (2) Annual Departmental Reports Relating to the Gambia, 1881-1966. (31 reels, 1981).

Items in these series are marked EP- Reel....

EP Microform derived its material from sets held by various libraries in England. In many series there are missing issues, and these have been indicated by the note "Not on microfilm." Sometimes my own notes show the existence of such items in the National Archives of The Gambia, (the former Public Record Office) in Banjul and appropriate data have been included. Unfortunately the National Archives have never published a detailed catalog of their holdings. Where I have never come across an item, this has been indicated as "Not seen," "Not available," "Not traced," or by leaving a blank space after the year. I would be glad to hear from any librarian or research worker who can supply missing data.

The indication Bibliography, Bibl. etc. followed by a number, e.g. #250 refers to the appropriate entry in Gamble, David P. & Sperling, Louise: A General Bibliography of The Gambia (Up to 31 December 1977). Boston: G.K.Hall, 1979.

The EP Microform series stopped with the year of independence. However in many cases publication continued after independence, and in some instances I have continued the listing to include my own holdings. Special reports which do not form part of a series, but which are also found on the EP microfilms have not been listed.

In some years Annual Departmental Reports were published as Sessional Papers of the Legislative Council, but eventually ceased to be published in this form. Other reports, such as the Auditor General's Report continued longer as Sessional Papers.

The Gambia Government Gazette for 18 July 1903, pp. 265-266

states:

"The following annual reports will be prepared, printed as Legislative Council papers and submitted to the Secretary of State:

- (a) Administrative and Financial by the Colonial Secretary.
- (b) Medical and Meteorological by the Senior Medical Officer.
- (c) Public Health by the Senior Medical Officer.
- (d) Births and Deaths by the Registrar.
- (e) Trade by the Collector of Customs. Also Port and Shipping.
- (f) Civil Police Force and Crime by the Superintendent of Police.
- (g) Prisons by the Inspector of Prisons.
- (h) Public Works, Land and Survey by the Colonial Engineer.
- (i) Gardens and Forest by Curator.
- (j) Postal by the Postmaster.
- (k) Educational by the Inspector of Schools.
- (l) Savings Bank by the Treasurer.
- (m) West African Frontier Force by the Officer Commanding the Gambia Company.
- (n) Government Vessels by the Master of Government Vessels.
- (o) District Reports at the end of each tour by the Travelling Commissioners. "

Departmental Estimates were to be submitted by the Colonial Engineer, and Heads of Departments to the Colonial Secretary. The estimates for public works etc. were transmitted to the Secretary of State.

Data on births and deaths (d) were published in the Gazette.

I have never come across reports on the West African Frontier Force or Government Vessels (m) & (n).
